The McGill University varsity women's hockey team is in a building year with only four returnees from last season's team. The veterans and rookies started in a fall training program in late September under rookie coach, Brian Merry.

In exhibition and league games, Laura Kobayashi, Dawn Fowler and Karil Middlebrook have been the main scorers, while Lysanne Parisien, Brigitte Marchand and Hélène Charbonneau have also played well for McGill.

The goalies, Laura Drover and Isabelle Marchand have done an excellent job and we know will continue to do so.

Coach Merry is looking forward to the second half of the season, when several experienced defensive players will register at McGill and add their strength to the potential that is already there.

The Potsdam Women's varsity hockey team is coming off it's best year ever with a 23-3 record in 1979-80. The team was led in scoring, by the leading scorer in the United States, Potsdam's Cathy Lawler who recorded 74 goals and 45 assists.

Veterans also returning are Nancy Catanzarite, Nancy Labass, Peggy Donahue, Roberta Garrison and Tracy Haggett.

We'll be playing a 25 game schedule this year, including 6 Canadian teams.

Coach Sullivan is expecting great things from his team and he has every reason to do so.

Coach: John Marchetti
 Asst. Coach: George Susce
 Bill Barnes
 Trainer: Kate Denning
 Manager: Ann Mary Dulski
 Colors: Black, White & Gold

Taking over at the helm this year is Providence College graduate John Marchetti. He has inherited the strongest team in its seven year history. Last year's top six scorers have all returned led by Connie Richer and Kathy Lenahan, giving the Lady Friar's a top team. It may be weaker on defense with only three players returning, although Marchetti is fortunate to have sophomore Jane Ford back as a starter, along with two freshmen goalies Mary Beth Crook and Barbara Luther.

The 1980-81 team, on paper the best team yet at Providence College, will try to better last winter's 20-3 record. "This is the team that can take the title. We have scoring, experience, depth and players who are just willing to give their all," said Coach Marchetti.

Assisting Marchetti will be seniors George Susce and Bill Barnes. So far this season, the Lady Friars have recorded wins over Boston University, Boston College, Clarkson and Potsdam with their only loss being to Northeastern 5-4 in OT.

2	Karen Kane	Goalie

4	Sue Flynn	Left Wing
6	Claire Hilliker	Right Wing
7	Vicki Lafontaine	Center

12	Rose Berard	Right Wing
14	Kelley Parsons	Defense
15	Pat Wintle	Defense
16	Hollie Williams	Left Wing

Coach: Glenn Ruiter
 Asst. Coach: Jill Gowdey
 Manager: Reena Chawla
 Gyorgi Kiefer
 Colors: Blue & Gold

The 1980-81 edition of the Islanders is a young one. Instead of the usual base of 8 or 9 veterans which, when spiced with a handful of rookies produces an effective balance of experience and new blood, no more than 3 of last year's players will be returning. As has been the case in the past, many of the rookies will have moved up from the Ringette leagues and are good skaters, but will need to learn the fine points of hockey.

The other obstacle facing the Islanders in league play is the presence of former Islanders in opposition uniforms. What had previously been a spattering of players has now developed into a flood and both McGill and Concordia will challenge Abbott with players whose skills have been honed in Abbott's rink.

Throughout the total of 25 games that the Islanders will play this season, the team will be counting on the leadership that will come from Louise Duguay, Kelley Parsons and Sue Flynn, the 3 returning veterans. The new players have indicated a strong desire to play the game and learn the fine points, a quality which will cause the season to be a success whatever the final results will be.

* Letter Winners

Coach: Bill Duthie
 Asst. Coaches: Ed Munson, Scott Martin
 Co-Captains: Brenda Condon, Cindy Warren
 Trainer: Marc Gruder
 Manager: Lindsay Liotta
 Colors: Carnelian & White

The Cornell women's varsity hockey team meets strong opposition this season in Providence, Northeastern, New Hampshire and Potsdam, but expects to be in the thick of things. Coach Duthie has reason to be optimistic as 11 letter winners return from last year's team that captured the Ivy League Championship and placed third in the EIAW championships in March.

Leading the returning veterans are co-captains Brenda Condon and Cindy Warren. Condon has anchored the Cornell defense for the past three seasons and provides stability to the defensive group. Warren enters the season with impressive career statistics (76-107) including 23-31 last season.

Cornell will also be strong in goal as Sarah Mott returns for her junior season. She was named first team All-Ivy last year as she posted a 2.74 goals against average in 23 games. Four veterans, Condon, Liz Madden, Jenny Arden, and Katie Hallada will hold defense, while up front Marg Degidio, Diane Dillon, Nancy Booth, Lori Cohen and Jill Fisch along with Cindy Warren will give Cornell a balanced attack.

Colors: Maroon, Gold & White

The Concordia University women's hockey team competes in the Quebec Women's Intercollegiate Hockey League with McGill Martlets, the John Abbott Islanders and the Bishop's University Lady Gaiters.

The Stingers are presently in first place in the Q.W.I.H.L. with a 6-0-0 record. Overall their record is 12-3-1. Earlier this season they participated in the York University Invitational Tournament in Toronto and emerged with the Consolation Championship. They travel to New Brunswick just prior to their own Tournament to play in the U.N.B. Tourney.

Six promising rookies join a returning nucleus of fourteen veterans to provide head coach, Bill Doherty with a balanced squad. Doherty is assisted by Art Noseworthy.

Led by last year's Tournament All-Stars, Denise Bienvenu and Laurie McKeown the team is aiming to put up a strong showing. Add to them Corinne Corcoran (17 goals - 23 assists) Julie Healy (16 goals - 9 assists) and Kathleen Casey (11 goals - 12 assists) and you can understand their optimism.

The McMaster University varsity women's hockey team's record is presently 2-2. With many new faces they have been improving slowly but surely and expect to make a strong run for the Ontario Championships.

After the New Year, veterans Donna Downes, Barb Brown, Shaunalea Cope, Cindy Vining, Maureen Carter and Jane Acton will help develop the team.

Rookies Mary Weiss and Flicker Aiyede have played very well in the first half of the season, as have Laurie Simpson, Michelle Philp and Eve Pongray. Sophomore Beth Harrison is developing into one of the best defensive players in the league.

The Lady Macs also boast three exceptional goal tenders in Vining, Cathy Thomas and Jane Pilling.

The blend of veterans and rookies, and the strong desire to play the game will bring success to our season.

The Université du Québec à Trois Rivières Women's hockey team is in its fifth year on the basis of a Club Sport.

They play approximately 15 exhibition games against Universities and other outside teams.

The team is composed of University students mainly, however some outside women play when they are short in number, except when they play other Universities.

For the past two years they have had hopes of playing in the same league as Concordia University, however there was doubt as to the continuity of the team.

Under the excellent coaching of Michèle St. Martin, their hopes may come true.

If we hadn't just won the gold medal for the 7th straight year we wouldn't have been able to run this ad again.

And our ad agency really likes this ad. They think it should also win an award. They say that it takes just as much talent to turn out a prize winning ad as it does to make a prize winning whisky.

But frankly we'd rather have our vat taster make our ad, than have our ad people make our whisky.
